He was a pillar of strength and a source of joy in their lives.

Throughout his accomplished career in sales at Sup-R-Die Inc. and as a machinist at American Punch and Delta Tech., DJ was not only a dedicated professional but also a beloved coach on the softball field. “ DJ will be deeply missed by me. The incredible love, trust, and bond I had with him is nothing less than if he were my own son. This relationship started when he was a young toddler running around in his yard wearing only shorts and cowboy boots, saying "my boots, my boots!" I had many good times with him over the years, sharing endless fun and deep conversations.

The last time I saw him was a month before he passed. We went to the Willie Nelson Outlaw Festival at Blossom Music Center. It was a whole day of fun, laughing, singing & dancing together, and good conversation!

Another thing about him is that when I would say something to him, or ask him a question, he would respond with just, "Pretty much." It always made me smile when he would say that, or even when other people said it.

DJ was a model husband & father, a very hard worker, a man of God, and a kind, gentle soul.

I will be forever grateful for the time I had with him. He will be, and is, deeply missed.

“ I loved seeing DJ at church, even though our conversations made me late for the sermon EVERY time. He overcame so many challenges and was the leader and rock for his family, all the while approaching life with the same upbeat, unbothered attitude. I'm envious of the man that DJ became over the years: committed to his faith, funny, boisterous, unapologetically himself.

So sorry to hear about his passing. Becca and I are praying for healing and peace for all of the Gardner family.

“ Duane accepted me as a person when I started going to the Diamondback. We would sit at the bar and play song for song just to see if the other would know the music. He always won. I will always remember singing with him even if it was to the jukebox. I will miss him dearly. My thoughts and prayers are with the whole family. Please let me know if you need anything. Jen, Lizzy has my number. If you need ANYTHING, please call. I love you all.

“ I know with great confidence that I speak for our Shore Junior High (Middle) School family in expressing our deep sadness and condolences on the loss of D.J. Today, many of his former teachers, coaches, and administrators reached out and remembered him fondly as a young man with a great zeal for life, friends, family, and sports. He, his wife Jen, and his siblings left such a strong and lasting impression on our staff for their hard work, good humor, and dedication. He will surely live on in our collective memories!
