“ Our hearts are saddened to hear of Eddie's death. We remember his smile and his commitment to family. Even though we do not live in the Cleveland area, it doesn't mean that I don't think of my family nearly everyday. My old picture with Uncle Lenin is still in clear view on my night stand. Aunt Donna, Cindy, Toni and Lenny - so sorry for your loss. No one should have to bury a child. Much love to you all.
