“ Mr. Zmina was always so kind - I went to NDCL with Nick, and I was fortunate enough to have been invited out on the boat with a group of friends on Lake Erie. Mr. Zmina had a great sense of humor and an infectious laugh. I'm so sorry to just be learning of his passing. I'm praying for the family. ”

“ John

Thursday afternoon my brother John and I sat among my garden flowers drinking iced tea. He asked about the plants he did not recognize, praised my tomato crop and with delight, told a story of a recent fishing adventure. Shade and a cool breeze enveloped us as he answered technical questions about boating. I, with admiration, complimented his nautical knowledge.

Later Earl prepared a fish dinner with some of his bountiful catch from Lake Erie. His son, Nick joined us for dinner after his work, arriving precisely in time for the delicate fish to be served and we talked until dark. Friday evening was the last time we spoke when he called to thank me for dinner and to recap what a perfect evening that we shared.

Last evening I told this story and a wise person said that evening was the beginning of his new life. I wish this for him, for whatever lies beyond the uncharted waters none of us have sailed, and whatever form we become, may it be free from worry and bathed in light. Rest in peace, my dear brother.
