“ I would like to say it has been a true pleasure, and honor to have cared for Ms. Ellie for the past 1 and 1/2 years. I have a great love for older people and she just touched my heart in many ways. I found her to be witty, funny, cheerful , devilish at times and full of life. She was 98 yrs old when I started caring for her and she had all her faculties about her and shared some interesting stories and words of wisdom with me. Many of us do not take the time to get to know an older person or see them as too who they really are. She loved to talk and had her opinions about things. She was uncertain if she would make 100yrs of age, and when she did, she said to me " I made it" Everything she ever desired had come true for her. Going to her first Indian baseball game at age of 99 and getting her picture on the Smucker jar, at age of 100. I will miss talking girl talk and laughing with her. She was quite a lady. She always Thanked me for caring for her before I left to go home and told me she loved me. This meant the world to me to know that I made a difference in her life that day in a positive way. To her family I offer my Sincere Condolence for I know you too will miss her. God granted you 100 years with her. What A Blessing only a few will see.
