“ I took piano lessons from Frank for several years back in the 1970s and 80s. The time we spent together was great fun and Frank always had a new joke to tell. I am grateful to him for teaching me and being so kind. I am saddened to hear of his passing as I have thought about him often over the years every time I sit at my piano. My heartfelt condolences to his family.

“ So sorry to hear that Frank Cardoni has passed away. He taught my daughter Jen (age 5 at the time) in 1990. He would come to our house for her lessons. She was so little I had to use a dining room chair for her to reach the pedals. He was a wonderful teacher! He always finished her lesson by playing something for us and we would dance. I paid cash each week for her lessons.... I think it was $8 a week . She developed a beautiful voice and is now a worship leader at her church. I think frank played a big role in shaping her love for music. Prayers for his family. We were blessed to have him in our lives.
