“ I remember your family well. I loved your family. I was friends with Connie. I moved to Bayridge when I was 12. I loved it. When I moved to Toledo it was devastating to me. I came back in around 1983 and visited and mr and mrs Daniels were home. Mrs Daniels answered the door and i couldnt stop crying. She gave me a huge hug. Mr Daniels was so wonderful as well. They were so wonderful and kind. I do miss those days and just want your family to realize how much they meant to me.
Your parents meant a lot to me. And being there at that time.
