“ Dear Lisa, Frankie, Paul, Vincent, and Frank's Family-Frank was a loving, devoted husband, father, and son. He was a good man. He was in our lives for a short time-he'll be missed. With love Karen, Chris, Katie, and Alex.

Sorry we're not there.

“ Frank was a very special person who brought great fun and joy to many people's lives. I felt very privileged to know Frank and he will be missed by all who knew him.

I know that the last several years that Frank spent with Lisa and the boys were the happiest of his life and he appreciated everything special that came his way.

Good luck to Lisa, Frank, Paul and Vincent and to Frank's parents and sisters. He spoke of all of them fondly and often.

“ We got to know Frank and Lisa during time spent at The Ronald McDonald House. They were such a joy to be around, no matter the circumstances. We witnessed the love they had for one another and their children and feel that they taught us so much about love and life. We are just so saddened about the loss of Frank. Although we've only known one another a short period of time we feel as though, they have been our friends for years. Lisa, our love and prayers are with you, Frankie, Vincent and Paul....please, do not hesitate to call us for anything, at anytime.
ALL OUR LOVE, Lynn, Carol & Macy Spigelmire

“ I'll always remember Frank as a huge helper and such a nice guy. He was always willing to help whomever needed it. He was a great person and will be missed.

“ My thoughts and prayers go to Frank's family. I never met Frank but have known his sister Janet for 15 years and know how close she was to him. Sometimes we can't find an answer when tragedy like this strikes a family, but have faith and be strong.

“ *Dear Lisa and the entire Grieco Family,
We send our deepest sympathy to each and everyone of you.
We are sorry not to be with you at this time of great sorrow. I will remember a smiling Frank from when I met him at the Reunion in August. It's unbelievable how quickly the cancer took him.
Hugs to the triplets.*

*Love,
Aunt Carol and Uncle Ray*
