“ My grandfather was an amazing man. He was there for me all through out my life and im happy about that. Even though I'm in my youth and eventually my memories will fade away as I get older ill never forget my grandpa. E4 petty officer Frank J Somrack was a great father, sailor, pilot, worker, husband, union president, baseball player, and grandfather. Im gonna miss spending time with him, visiting him and showing him all our new technologies, he really did get a kick out of red dead redemption the cowboy game, he even said that one of the characters looked like clint walker his favorite cowboy. Im so glad I got to ask him questions and reminisce about his time in the service socking old hitler on the jaw and fixing up b-17s so that they could finish one more mission. Im most happy that I got to know him, my father never got to know his grandpa and he always hoped that we would get to know ours, and his wish came true. And truly its not often that the last thing you say to a loved one is I love you, and the last thing you hear is I love you. I speak for me, my brother, and my father when I say there are no could haves, would haves, or should haves, we really spent time with him and thats what helps me sleep at night. Knowing him he's probably twisting with eisenhower and Elvis, and his beloved wife. Your kids miss you, your cousins miss you, and your grandkids miss you. Thank you for everything grandpa and God rest your soul.

“ My Grandpa was truly one in a million. I have peace in knowing he is with his love, Grandma Molly, and with his daughter whom he missed so very much, my mother. Not to mention his parents and all his siblings. They are all together now ❤️ This doesn't mean we won't grieve down here though, he was more of a father figure my whole life. He did so much for me growing up and his love for me and my family was unconditional, always. He was the silliest, most stubborn, most loving, smartest, most dependable, strongest man I ever knew. I am so proud to call him my Grandfather. He taught me a lot and we had some amazing conversations in his last years. Ones I will hold so dear and never ever forget. We laughed, we cried, we hugged. I will miss going Azman's to get his rice sausage every time I visited, giving him his haircuts, Just sitting in the living room and having coffee with him and being in the house that they called home for 65 years. To never visit again is going to be so hard. 40 years of memories for me there. So glad we told each other we loved each other every single time we talked. Grandpa, fly high with the angels, no more suffering, can't wait to see you again one day.....🙏

Love you forever and always,
Kristin

“ Frank and I joined the Navy together in June of 1943---we shared boot camp at the Great Lakes training center--we grew up together Frank on E. 169th st I on E. 168th st. His Father Anton and My father Louis were brothers. Frank and I enjoyed having dinner together to reminisce on the old days. Frank and Molly were blessed with many happy years of marriage. Now he will finally be laid to rest next to his beloved Molly. Rest in peace Frank--so glad and proud to be your cousin. Bob Somrak SR.
