“ I have many memories of Fred since I first met him 50 years ago when he moved to East 148 Street in Cleveland with Donna, Terry, Anthony and Leon. I met him through my best friends (brothers I never had) Dave and John Wright. Our families became good friends. Whether it was memories from living in the old neighborhood, the campsite in Huntsburg, or Fred and Donna taking my wife Linda and I out for dinner, shortly after we were married. Linda and I send out prayers and condolences to Terry, Anthony, and the family. May God bless Terry (who calls us brothers from another mother) and Anthony, or Ants as he was known growing up. Yes my friend I remember that. We are here for you if you need anything.

“ I will always remember stopping by to bring you treats or visit and you coming out to share in some laughs. It will not feel the same without you Fred. You are missed by many. Many prayers and so much love for you and all of your family here and throughout the states you cross. Rest in heavenly peace Fred.
