

George Adomaitis

March 13, 1933 - March 15, 2026

George Adomaitis, age 93, of Willowick, passed away peacefully on March 15, 2026, just two days after celebrating his 93rd birthday. He was born on March 13, 1933, in Cleveland, Ohio, to the late Alex and Eva (née Weiss) Adomaitis.

George was a man of steadfast dedication and a servant's heart. He proudly retired from Ohio Bell/AT&T after 35 years of loyal service. Beyond his career, George was known for his generous spirit, particularly through his involvement with the "Toys of Love" charity, where he spent countless hours fixing and restoring toys to bring joy to children in need.

An active man who enjoyed life's simple pleasures, George was often found playing cards, golfing, or bowling with friends. He also had a sharp mind and rarely missed a day working on a crossword puzzle. Above all, George's family was his absolute pride and joy. He was happiest when surrounded by his loved ones, especially his great-grandchildren, who always brought a special sparkle to his eyes.

George is survived by his daughter, Linda (Daniel) Maloney, and his son-in-law, Louis Cirino. He was a cherished grandfather to Alysia Cirino (Clayton Davis) and Vince (Rachel) Cirino, and a proud "Big Papa" to his great-grandchildren, Dawson and Joni. He also leaves behind his dear cousin, Pat

Healy.

He was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Gloria Adomaitis (née Chiccola); his daughter, Laura Cirino; his grandson, Kevin Maloney; and his brother, Alex Adomaitis.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Friday, March 20, 2026, at 11:00 AM at St. Mary Magdalene Church, 32114 Vine St, Willowick, OH 44095.
