“ We knew George through his children and grandchildren. He must have been a great man to have fathered such a wonderful family. They speak well for the life he lived and those he left behind. A very special family. God Bless.

“ My sincerest condolences are sent to all of you. George was a loving father, husband and grandfather. He will hold a very special place in my heart when I see that sparkling glint he had in his eyes passed down and present in his beautiful daughters and granddaughters. I send my deepest sympathies on your loss.

“ Family and friends of Mr. Foster please accept my condolences. You can find comfort in the fond memories of your loved one. The Bible also offers words of comfort during times of bereavement. Isaiah 51:12 states “I-I myself am the One that is comforting you people.” It is comforting to know the Bible speaks of a time when “death will be no more”; at Rev 21:3, 4. During your time of bereavement may you find comfort from reading the Bible.
