“ I am sad to hear of the passing of George whom I first met better than 55 years ago through playing hockey in the Euclid Recreational League against his son Stirling. Other memories include George playing in polka bands or hanging out at Cebar's with his daughter-in-law Veronica for an occasional fish fry. I fondly remember one of his trademarks was nibbling on a cigar butt that was half smoked. Your steady gentleman demeanor will be missed. Condolences to the family and may you rest in God's mercy.

“ I will always remember seeing him play in his Polka band growing up and playing down in the basement during parties. I will remember the sweet smell of tobacco when he would smoke his pipe and the nasty smell when he would switch to cigars. He was the last in the old era of our family and he will be missed.
