

Georgia Mae Blackmon

September 10, 1935 - March 5, 2024

Georgia Mae Blackmon, a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother passed away on March 5, 2024, she transitioned peacefully, surrounded by her family, marking the end of a beautiful journey.

Born on September 10, 1935, to the late Dock and Ethel Mcnear. Georgia lived a life filled with love, dedication, and grace. For over six decades, Georgia was the devoted wife of Melvin Blackmon and the loving mother to their son Melvin (Carolyn). Her legacy extends to her cherished grandkids Melvin Jr. (Frances) and Malen, her great-grandson Benjamin, as well as her sisters Anne and Dorothy. Georgia's dedication to her family was unparalleled, and her impact on their lives will be eternal.

She was preceded in death by her brothers Eugene, Jim, Anderson, Ross, and Donald.

Having retired from Bailey Controls, Georgia found joy in the simplicity of life, spending her days tending to her garden, a reflection of her nurturing spirit and inner peace.

Wake is scheduled for Sunday, March 10, 2024, from 2pm till 6pm at Monreal Srnick Funeral Home, 35400 Curtis Blvd, Eastlake. A Celebration of Life service in honor of Georgia Mae Blackmon will take place at Monreal Srnick

Funeral Home on Monday, March 11, 2024, at 11:00 am. with Following the service, Georgia will be laid to rest at Willoughby Memorial Gardens.

Georgia's memory will forever be cherished in the hearts of those who were fortunate enough to know her, and her spirit will live on through the generations she touched. As we bid farewell to our dear Georgia, let us remember her with smiles, gratitude, and the love that she so generously shared with us all. Her legacy will continue to brighten our lives with the enduring flame of kindness and compassion that she exemplified.

Rest peacefully, Georgia Mae Blackmon, knowing your love and light will forever shine brightly in our hearts.

“ I met and worked alongside Georgia at McRae’s in the late 1980s. She was my elder and I admired her work ethic and wisdom. She spoke with kindness and had an infectious laugh. Those were good times. She also taught me about Blue Dot hamburgers. I have thought of her often over the years. Sydney Smith Wilson, Brookhaven, Mississippi
