*Upon his passing....
"Through the lens of my window

Red hot party
A late night in heaven.
Drums beating until dawn,
celebrating of his arrival."*

You have been very fortunate in having Gerald ,the Father and Husband, in your lives. He was the best , kindest, happiest man I knew and I loved him like a brother that he was. I know he will be in heaven with Bachie, Pam, Edg, Stella and all the rest of his family.we are all blessed by having him in the family. I know it is a difficult time for you but you can always think about the good things he enjoyed in living and giving in his life.

“ Louise and Aunt Mary Kay, I am heartfully sorry for your loss. Now that I am grown up, I realize what a true "gem" of a husband & brother you were blessed to of had in your lives. My neighbor-dad Jerry Woc was always kind & loving to us as children. Louise, it's amazing how much we knew he loved you & the girls. I'll pray you find peace & strength knowing he is blessed to be in his true home with God and that you find comfort that he's reunited with Pam and Bachi. Take care of yourselves during this difficult time in life & love you. Lisa Zavoda

“Denise, Diane & Kim, "thank-you" for sharing your Dad aka "Jerry Woc" as we grew-up on E 347th. I will always have fond & loving memories of your Dad, he built the best treehouses, swings, gardens & ice-skating rinks in the whole world & if it was broke he could always fix-it. He never minded spending time with us Zavoda girls & taking us sled riding & to Crabapple. I'll pray you find peace & comfort during this difficult time & truly believe he is in a beautiful & joyful place with God and reunited with Pam & Bachi. Love you guys. Lisa Karel

“Dear Woc family,
I send prayers and love to all of you. As the shock and sadness from losing Gerald, a devoted and loving husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend so unexpectedly begins to ease, I pray that the Woc family find themselves rich with memories of his contagious laughter, kindness, tolerance and above all remembering how much he loved his wife and family. We are all better persons for having had Jello in our lives. He was one of a kind and will be sorely missed.
