“ It is difficult to find the words to express how Gloria's passing makes me feel. I am at once terribly sad to know I can never again hear her voice or see her beautiful smile and glad knowing that she will know no more pain or sorrow. She had the most wonderful, most loving family anyone could ever have. I know you will continue to hold each other close and to honor her and remember her always. Illness prevents me from being able to attend services for my oldest and dearest friend but she will live in my heart as long as it continues to beat. Yvonne, Harry, Mitchell, and Harry Sr. will be in my heart also for as long as I live. Please don't lose touch with me. If all goes well after an upcoming sugery I will be able to visit with you all again. God Bless you all.

“ My prayers go out to you all. What a perfect picture of Gloria, she looks so beautiful as I remember her from when you all were so gracious to allow us to take refuge in your humble home. You all are like family to me and I have been greatly honored to be part of your lives. This is such a bitter sweet time as I know the pain and sorrow you all have been going through and the dedication of being there for Gloria in these times of trouble. Harry Sr. I can say enough about how honorable of a husband you have been. You have the soul of an Angle. Life will be different as we move forward and look forward to the day we will see her and mom together again. I wish I could take the pain away. I am here for any and all of you if you need to talk. God bless you all, Mark Clay and family
