“ To the Strodbeck Family, So sorry for your loss. I personally always enjoyed talking with Gordy. He was just here picking up parts a week or so ago. I've known him for years. Originally when he worked for Superior Auto Parts. I frequented that store when we were younger. Most recently with my connection to him and The City of Kirtland. Anyone who knew him enjoyed his company. This is just a shock to us all. Please accept our condolences. Frank Kalcher and the entire staff @ Spear Chardon Tractor Sales

“ Found out from my mother that my old softball coach passed away unexpectedly. Gordy was a friend of the family as I'm sure he was to many. He was just working on my sister's car it seemed like the other day. He used to tell me what a hothead I was on the softball field. Gordy was right. He told it like it was. The Eastlake Rockets softball dynasty lost another great coach. My condolences go out to Laura, Stephanie, Shawn, Steve and the rest of the Strodbeck family.
