“ Harvey, I am so happy that I got to be friends with such a kind & caring soul. I met you at the Park with my daughter Cathy & our dogs - Chloe & Maya. You took such good care of your little Kyle, sharing with us his little antics for the day. I miss you & pray that you are with Kyle & your family. You were a good man & we all enjoyed your company! The Park will never be the same with out you & Kyle. God Bless You, Harvey.

“ In Memory of Our Dear Friend, Harvey. We will always remember you & your sweet dog, Kyle. We miss & think of you both, everytime we are at the Park. We are praying that you & Kyle are reunited again & walking through a Heavenly Park. May you be reunited with all you loved, you truly deserve it. God Bless You, Harvey! And I still feed the birds at all your special places, in Memory of You. We both shared a love of animals, good memories!

“ My fondest memories of Grandpa Deegan were the visits to their old house by the river. He was magic with the little critters! After popping fresh popcorn we’d go out back by the bird feeder, and in a few minutes he’d have 10 to 20 animals eating out of his hand. In his old age, and loneliness, we all know he had Kyle, and the deer and squirrels at the park and the dog friends at the park. I hope that his friends pet owners from the park made it to the service.

It’s been a year and 8 months since I’ve been back to the US and since I’ve seen grandpa. For all his quirks later in life I have a lasting memory of a caring person. Without fail he was the most loyal visitor to love ones lost: brother, daughter, wife. In a world of hurt he found condolence in nature. I have a feeling it came naturally through his native blood. If I could be at the funeral I would, and vow out of respect to Grandpa to overcome my own inhibitions about cemeteries and re-fresh the flowers every time I’m home.
