“Hank (Uncle June) was like a second father to me. He and Miss Evelyn always welcomed people into their home and made them feel like family. I loved listening to Uncle June's stories of growing up In West Virginia, the experiences he had in the Pacific, and fun events with his friends from Ohio, Virginia, and Florida. He was a true hero of the Greatest Generation. On his 90th birthday I remarked about him being so active and his comment was "birthdays keep coming but you don't have to get old". What a wonderful experience of knowing this gentleman! He will be greatly missed but not forgotten.
