“ Holly,

The impact you had on so many people could never be explained. And with good reason. You were truly an angel. I am blessed to have known you. I will never forget who you really were. The girl that would give her last dollar to a stranger if they needed it. The girl who would take people in and feed them and give them a place to stay. The Mom who would do anything for her kids. The friend that was always there. The daughter or sister that was the glue to the family. The girl who knew what she wanted and wasn't afraid to go get it. Always giving. I know you are still running around in heaven taking care of business there too. Never stopping to ask why just doing and doing going and going. Holly Your laugh was contagious. Your presence was definitely known no matter what the setting. You lit the room up. You don't come across a person like you often. Someone who is real and genuine and has that old soul. You were beyond your years and the time that I got and others got with you may have felt like it was cut short and maybe it was. But you left us all with the memory of you and that will last forever. You will always be missed and never forgotten. Asi and Joey if you ever read this just know. Your Mom was amazing and she loved you with all her heart.

“ To Holly, my beautiful little sister,

There's not a day that goes by that I don't think about you. The time we shared was far too long, yet not nearly long enough. I still can't accept that I will never be able to share my triumphs and joy, or my sorrow and sadness, that I will endure in my life without being able to share them with you. My deepest regret is that I may not be able to share them with your precious children, whom will surely be told how great of a presence your spirit affected everyone encompassed in your life. I cannot begin to describe how your passing effects me, still, to this day. Just know that your spirit lives on not just today, but for generations yet to come. You are my sister and I will love you forever.

The only one I ever allowed to call me Christopher and your Big Brother forever and ever...

“ I wanted to stop by and let you know that NO one has forgotten you. I still think of you and the people that are still processing the hurt that you are no longer here. I keep your family in my prayers always. You are a beautiful soul and you are truly missed by many.

“ You were my best friend. You picked me up when I was down. I wish I could have done the same for you one last time. I meant it when I told you I would go to the ends of the earth and back for you. My life will forever be changed for the better for having known you. May you rest in peace and know that you will always have a piece of my heart to call your own. I love you. Goodbye pretty.

“ We are very sorry to hear about your loss. My wife Sarah Beth was Asianna's pre-k teacher in 2007 and we had the privelege of having Holly as a friend. Please tell Asianna know that Mrs. Gomelsky is thinking and praying for her. Our condolences are with all you.

*Sincerely,
The Gomelskys
Shelbyville, KY we moved back to KY in 2009.*

“ Holly Ann, May you be free from pain and suffering now that you are with Grandma. To my sister: my heart aches for you and hopefully as time passes you will find comfort knowing Holly is with our mother. To the rest of Holly's family and friends: I am truly sorrow for this tragic loss. All my love Aunt J. I love you Jean, your sister

“ Even though I didn't really know you that well the impression you made on me was most definitely a great one. It had been awhile since we had met and hung out but I honestly just tried to look you up on Facebook two weeks ago just to see your pretty face and trade pleasantries like we did. I was in denial when I read the news and cried when I was sure... beautiful, kind girl and you will most certainly be missed. xoxo
