“ My deepest sympathy to Joan and the girls. Nothing but great memories of Jack from smm.working pre- Cana with Joan and jack. Roasting Fr. McDonough and all social activities . He was the best neighbor that Pete and Ronnie could possibly have along with the rest of the gang at the end of forest grove. May his soul and all the souls of the faithfully departed Rest In Peace. “ My Sympathies to Joan, Sue , Jill and Jacklyn on the loss of your Husband/ Father ! I think my favorite remembrances of Jack was his everyday dealing with the Vahcic 5 next door ! He never ever complained about the boys(though I knew they were mischievious) well maybe a few times but he always took an interest in them and cared about there well being ! You were all so blessed to have such a man of integrity !! I will not be able to attend because of the COVID situation ! Best regards/ Prayers , Gary
