

James Clair

November 27, 1958 - June 26, 2011

Funeral Service: Thursday, June 30, 2011, 7:00 PM, Monreal Funeral Home, 35400 Curtis Blvd., Eastlake

Memberships/Organizations:

He was a member of AA for 26 years and founder of Mentor Monday Night Mix.

Jerry was passionate about eastern culture and spent 2 years in China teaching English.

He was known as someone who was philosophical, creative, intelligent, caring, welcoming, an AA role model and as a good and respectful father who was a great guide in life.

Survivors are his daughters: Jennifer Serkan Clair-Toy and Lindsey William Kowalcic; his son: Shawn; his grandson: Selim; his brother: David Pam; and his friend and companion: Debi Clair

He is preceded in death by his parents John and Louise and his brother John.

Visitation: 3:00 PM - 7:00 PM , Thursday

Place: Monreal Funeral Home, 35400 Curtis Blvd., Eastlake

Tribute Wall

TK

“ I was at the first meeting Jerry ever attended. It was good to see that he eventually stayed sober and helped others.

---

Tony Kuhn - October 12, 2016 at 12:00 AM

HG

“ *To Jerry's family,
Your friend and father was a lovely man. We frequently had conversations covering a wide range of topics in the time I knew him. Jerry was passionate in his interests and beliefs. It was clear that he deeply loved his family. Peace.
Sincerely, Heather*

---

Heather Goldberg - October 12, 2016 at 12:00 AM

JS

“ Jerry, I am glad I got to know you for a brief time. I am sorry you are gone. I wish you nothing but peace and happiness wherever you are.

---

Jennifer Sybyl - October 12, 2016 at 12:00 AM

VA

“ I have known Jerry since he married my sister Debbie. I remember him being a good father, hard worker and decent man. I will miss him- Love Nancy

---

Victor and Nancy Acitelli - October 12, 2016 at 12:00 AM