“ We will lovingly remember Jim and the times we shared. We only wish we had one more time to sit on his back porch in Willowick and reminisce. There was work, bowling, golf and racquetball. We had canoe trips, barbecues, clambakes and Christmas parties. We had great times together and we will always remember you.

“ So many good memories, playing cards, eating pizza with that ghost pepper salt, so good. Returning to Florida with homegrown garlic for me was something I always look forward to. Most of all, we will remember the Friendship we shared and the title you had from our granddaughter, money man. RIP Jim, we love you.
