“ I am deeply sorry for the loss of your husband Judy. The few times I have met and spent time with him I will always cherish. He was always a kind, sweet and caring man. I am sure he will be surrounded by loved ones when he enters gods kingdom. I will surely miss him.

“ I am so sad to see my brother in law leave us on earth except to know that he will join members of his family and all the former loved ones who entered the Kingdom before him. He has begun to experience the Supreme happiness that those of us here on earth can only imagine by faith. I will forever admire the love story he and my sister so beautifully lived one day at a time. I am forever grateful to have been some small part of his journey in \"getting to know you\". Love and prayers always, Darcy.
