“ A memory of mine was when Jim returned from the service and drove up to my grandmother's house on Aetna Road in a 1958 Chevy BelAir with a continental kit. Jim was my father's first cousin.

“ Jim was a second dad to me when I was younger. Todd and I dated in high school and into our first year of college. Blanche and Jim were always good and kind to me and made me a part of their family. My dad died when i was nine and my mom got sick and I considered them to be wonderful role models. They taught me about family and kindness. I was always included at the holidays and throughout the year. Jim was always being silly and joking around.with me. I got his off the wall sense of humor, even back then. I learned how to do chocolate candy molding on a dare from him, of course I won, lol. He worked for a funeral home and always told us stories when he picked up people who passed away, I think he added the humor to deal with having a job like that. I hope he is happy in heaven, doing things he loved to do when he was younger. May God bless you Jim and keep you well in heaven.Always wonderful memories at the Tayerle household.Love Michelle Leovic
