

Jane A. Giles

December 29, 1952 - September 21, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Jane A. Giles, a woman known for her unwavering compassion, deep empathy, and profound love for animals. Jane, born to the late Genevieve and Lester Nichols, lived a life dedicated to understanding, acceptance, and love. She embodied a spirit of nonjudgmental understanding and touched the lives of many with her genuine sense of humor.

Jane will be remembered by her surviving relatives, including her loving husband Theodis Giles, her sister Sharon Papcke, and her brother Terry Nichols. Her presence brought solace, comfort, and kindness to those around her, leaving an indelible mark on all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Services will be private.