“ Jan was my sweet dear friend for over 20 years. After we retired from Meister, Jan, our friend Moni and I would go out to lunch and then head over to my house, finish off a bottle of wine and just talk and laugh the whole afternoon away. Or we would go shopping and help each other find bargains and just enjoy each others company. After my husband died, Jan and Tom would take me with them sometimes to restaurants that had bands playing there. Jan and I loved dancing to the upbeat sounds of oldies but goodies songs. I miss my dance partner very much. My heart grieves and mourns for my dear Jan. I know Jan is with our Lord, Jesus, no more pain, just happiness. I miss you and I love you, Jan, my dear sweet friend. Your friend and dancing partner, Carol.
