“ Janice grew up down the street from me on Forestgrove. We went to beauty school together, where we got to know each other and became better friends. She was so nice and so funny. My deepest condolences to her entire family. ”

“ Our dear Janice fought a long hard fight. Still, losing Janice is still shocking and devastating for her loving family. Jan share with me her most delicious recipes which I am always incorporating into my meals. She is accepting, generous in her love for others. Janice and Zolly have one of the BEST marriages I know of. Our hearts are empty, still Janice has a loving legacy in her 3 children and many grandchildren. Love - cousin, Susan Dowhan
