“Jean, my prayers are with you and your family as you plan your mom\'s farewell to this temporary home. Not having her with you in the physical will be hard, but what comfort God gives us in KNOWING FOR SURE that she will hold you in her arms again when one day you reach your permananet home. I love you and am praying peace and comfort for you and your family. Your friend in Christ, Lydia

“ Sister Jean,

God promises eternal life and as "Mom" enters this final chapter with the Lord, take comfort in his everlasting love. Justin, Russell, Tom, Trace, Scott and I are praying for you and the family during this time. Remember the joys that your Mother brought to this life and the may her strength live on in all of you.

Many Blessings,

Your little sister.

“ I offer my sympathy to the family and friends of Mrs. Mattingly. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead will live again. You can read these words at John 11:20-27. May you continue to rely and find comfort in reading the Bible.
