“ Dear Aunt Vicki, Cousin Debbie & Cousin Wendy, I am so sorry to hear the news of Cousin Jeff. I have a lot of regrets in my life, but the biggest is not having kept in contact with my extended family. All I remember is that when we were children, Jeff was like a brother and Debbie & Wendy you were like my sisters - we did so many things together. I am so sorry I can't afford to be there to help you. Jeff was too nice a person for this to happen. But then, perhaps this world is just a moment in our true existence. I can only hope he is somewhere much better than this world, and will enjoy - eventually with all of us - more joy than we can imagine. I'm not sure why, but Debbie, I always felt closest to you - perhaps because our ages are close. I can't imagine what this is doing to you and I feel so bad for you. I can only hope that you have the support of friends that will carry you through this painful time. Sincerely, Your loving Cousin, Rex
