“ So many great memories, flooding my mind the last few days. One of my favorite was just us 2, at my house for scary movie night, in sweat pants, and eating a whole pan of rice crispy treats together.. without shame! Just being near eachother, snuggled under a blanket. That level of comfort is rare to find. I will never forget her. She will always hold a huge part of my heart with her. My deepest condolences to her loving family and to Dylan. I just know she loved you all so much.

“ My best memories involve the countless sleepovers in the split level “log cabin” house, hanging out in the basement, burning cd’s, dancing all night, jumping around the couch, and talking about all the middle school and high school gossip that we could. She always had a way with people, magnetic and energetic. Her dance moves aligned greatly with her personality. I always envied her intelligence as she rarely had to study or try. I often copied her homework. I’ll never forget going to her dance recitals and just running around like careless teenagers. She is beautiful, strong, and at peace.
