Johanna Malbasa Sersic

October 30, 1930 – February 19, 2016

Johanna Malbasa, age 85, passed away February 19, 2016. She was born in Cleveland, Ohio, on October 30, 1930, to the late Frank and Frances Sersic.

She was the beloved wife of 54 years to the late George. She was a dear aunt and great aunt to many. Johanna leaves behind her sister, Catherine McMillan. She was preceded in death by her siblings: Mary Shesko, Helen Strohen, Frances Woyma, Ann Maurer, Dorothy Srnovrsnik Srnick, Alex Sersic and Rose Malbasa.

Johanna loved growing up together with her seven sisters and one brother sharing so many fascinating stories of their fun adventures. She enjoyed school and was an active participant in athletics and school clubs.

She married the love of her life George in Willoughby and then it became their home when together they purchased a beautiful farmhouse near the Chagrin River in the country. Nothing made her feel happier then strolling in her backyard enjoying nature's beauty of deer, hummingbirds and other wild life. This was their paradise.

The two of them would travel throughout the United States and Canada through the years with exciting excursions including boating, fishing, dog trial events and pleasure trips.

Over the years there were so many wonderful times George and Johanna welcomed family and friends to their home to enjoy picnics, pig roasts and late night bonfires lasting until sunrise. She fondly recalled laughing and enjoying times with those that she cherished, as these memories and this special place is where she was at peace.

Johanna was employed in the transportation industry as an executive administrator for Spector Red Ball. She enjoyed going to work daily and was very detail oriented making her very successful. Her pleasant personality was an asset in dealing with the human resource aspect of her position. She was very proud of her work accomplishments.

Her wish was to have no service.
