“ *Diane, Shawn, Jessica and family,
I hold you in prayer during this very difficult time. I remember all the good times we had at John's parent's home (Tony and Celia) especially during the holidays. They were so generous and supportive to me after my Mom died back in 1977. They took care of my Dad for awhile after she died. You were always welcome at their home. And John shared this welcoming spirit. I recall John's love for music and the band he led called "Sweet Surprise." I shall cherish these good memories. Sr. Barb Lenarcic, H.M.*

You are in my prayers, my Moms and my brother. I remember John as so loving, gentle and caring, very soft spoken. He never had a bad thing to say about anyone. He loved his music! Family and music made life joyous for him! RIP John.
