

John B Signorelli

June 25, 1928 - October 13, 2012

John Signorelli, 84, passed away peacefully in his sleep Oct. 13, 2012, at his home in Euclid.

Mr. Signorelli was born June 25 to his parents, the late Joseph and Angelina Signorelli in Cleveland.

John was a member of the Teamsters Local 436 for many years, working for Collinwood Concrete before retiring. He served in the Merchant Marines during World War II.

The family would like to use the words from a friend to summarize "Papa Signorelli": "He was always such a light spirit and had a smiling face. I have never met anyone before or since that seemed to brighten a room just by walking through the door the way your Grandpa Signorelli did. I smile, grateful that I had a chance to know him from a time. I pray you and your family will always carry on in that same spirit and pass it along to your children as well." John was a very loving and devoted father, grandfather Papa, great-grandfather and friend to many. His family brought him his greatest joy and he will be missed beyond words.

Survivors are his daughters, Toni Lynn Tim Donoughe and Kathleen Signorelli; sons, Joseph Signorelli and John Signorelli; grandchildren, Stacey David Loparo, John and Laura Donoughe, Danielle, Joey, Nicky and Gianna Signorelli; great-grandchildren, Kurstin, Bobby and Lily; sister, Rose Crowe; brother, Tony Alice Signorelli; and his first wife, Mary Lee Parsons Signorelli.

He was preceded in death by his second wife, Martha Jane, whom he was married to for 30 years; infant son, Phillip; brother, Mario; and sisters, Minnie Papo and Marge Mueller.

Funeral Mass will be noon Thursday, Oct. 18, 2012, at St. John Vianney Church, 7575 Bellflower Road, Mentor.
