“ To Joe, my mom’s companion for the last five years; It has truly been a pleasure knowing you and witnessing the joy you brought into my mom’s life. We will always appreciate the time you spent with us, from holidays to quiet, lazy movie days, and the way you welcomed my kids, treating them like your own grandchildren and embraced our family's chaos.
Now you will always be part of our family’s story. Rest in peace, Joe.

“ For those of you who know me, (and for those of you who don’t), I had the privilege of having Joe as my companion for the past 4+ years. In that time, we shared each other’s triumphs and sorrows..

We spent countless hours together—going to parties, listening to music, enjoyiing Fridays at the Eagles Club, taking vacations, and, of course, our many movie nights and quiet dinners, just the two of us. Joe was my partner, my confidant, and my dearest friend.

We always thought we’d be together until the end of time. But sadly, his time came before mine. Although this chapter of my life closes with his passing, the love, memories, and joy we shared will remain with me forever.

“ I only knew Joe for a short while. Always had nothing but kind words to say to me. Maybe because I was new to the group. May we all find comfort in knowing we will all meet again in a better place. Dirk Hill
