“ I am one of those people who really did have the dresses I wore in other people's weddings shortened to wear again! I would call Aunt Jo and she would tell me to come over to her house. She would get down on the floor and pin my dress while I told her about the wedding I had worn the dress and where I was going to wear it after she hemmed it. She also let me know that she thought I was asking her to make the dress a little to short! 😊 I am so proud and lucky to have had the experiences in my life to include Great Aunts! My deepest sympathy and love to my family. My prayers to you all.
