Enthusiastic and generous, she was an active member of the Eastlake Senior Center, the Lakeshore Women's Club, a dedicated volunteer at church festivals, and a founding member of St. Justin Martyr Church, where she worshipped faithfully.

“ Joyce, Sally, Trudy and family,
It was a great honor celebrating the Sacraments with Joyce when she was ill. She said she was a proud member of St Justin Martyr Church, and her love for nursing at Euclid General. She was dedicated to healing those most in need. Joyce and your family will be remembered in my daily prayers and Mass this weekend. May she rest in peace. May our Lord's comfort be with you always too.
