

June Yvonne Stasun

June 14, 1938 - June 30, 2019

June Yvonne Stasun, age 81, of Willowick, passed away June 30, 2019 at the Hospice of Western Reserve. She was born June 14th, 1938 in Cleveland. June attained her Master's Degree in education in Mathematics and Science from Kent State. June taught mathematics and science at Willoughby-Eastlake Junior High School for over forty years. She loved her career as a teacher and was described as an "institution at the school" by a former pupil. June ran extracurricular programs at her school including the Model Rocket Club and the Ham Radio Club. She also pursued a great many other hobbies with enthusiasm. Her love of birding and travel led her to visit all 50 states, most of which she drove to herself. Her love of classical music led her to a lifetime of playing the violin. A childhood passion for building model airplanes led to June obtaining her pilots license later in life, with an additional instrument rating.

June is survived by her brother, Dr. Kenneth Stasun and his wife Kathleen, as well as her niece, Katelin, and nephew Kevin. Her death was preceded by her parents Louis Stasun and Iva Stasun. She will be remembered as a loving daughter, sister, aunt, and community leader who helped shape the future of forty plus years of students. We miss you June.

“ June Stasun was an extraordinary teacher and an extraordinary person, who made an enormous impact on me and on many others. In my case, she was such a compelling model of how to teach a difficult subject well, and how to treat her students with fairness, respect, and affection. I doubt that I did it as well as she did, but few do.
