“ Thank you to all who attended Justin\'s memorial services. You were all very special to Justin and it meant more than I can say to us to have you there.

To Justin: I will love you forever and ever. You will always be my little Jusie Pooh. My heart is broken and will never be the same. I look forward to being with you when we meet again. For you I believe it is as Willie Nelson sings .....Nothing but blue skies from now on." I love you. Mom

“ To the Kononow Family and all of Justin\'s loved ones: I was deeply saddened to hear of Justin\'s passing...such a tragedy and a great loss to all who knew and loved him. Justin spent many hours at my house over the years and I grew to know him for his warmth, humor and amazing talent! As a parent myself, I can\'t begin to imagine the grief and pain you must endure at this time. I pray that your wonderful memories of the years you shared with your son will help sustain you and bring you comfort in these difficult days ahead. I know how much he loved Nikolas, and how very proud he was of him. I also know Justin will forever be Nik\'s angel and watch him grow from heaven. I will miss you miss your \'hola\', Justin. I will miss you.

God Bless.

“ When my phone rang and my dad told me you had left us forever, I couldn't believe it. I didn't want it to be true, Like Jen I was hoping it was a dream. But reality set in, It wasn't a dream and I knew life wouldn't be the same.

As your younger cousin, over the past 22 years I looked up to you and always will.

*I love you and hope to see you in the future. I miss you.
To my family who reads this, I love you and be strong.

“ I can't believe this is real and happening. I keep pinching myself to see if I am awake and keep hoping its some terrible nightmare that I will soon wake up from. Sadly its not.

Your gone.

Watching over us now an angel with such a great big heart and who has so much love for and from so many people. The world is darker because you aren't here in it.

I miss you so much.

So, so, so, so much. & I love you even more.
