

Kathleen Elaine Brazytis

December 4, 1951 - December 22, 2025

Kathleen Elaine Brazytis, age 74, passed away peacefully on December 22, 2025. Born on December 4, 1951, in Cleveland, Ohio, Kathleen dedicated more than 50 years of her life to the medical field, where her compassion and professionalism touched countless lives.

A devoted woman of faith, Kathleen was an active parishioner at Immaculate Conception Church in Willoughby and often visited Our Lady of the Shrine for prayer. Her spiritual devotion was a guiding light throughout her life.

Kathleen loved spending time with her granddaughters and was devoted to her dogs. She enjoyed being of service, helping at any chance she could. She was described as a unique character who fiercely loved her sons, grandchildren, and dogs more than anything.

She is survived by her son Matthew Brazytis; granddaughters Morgan, Raegan, and Jensen; daughter-in-law Amanda Brazytis; brother Ron Stich; and nephew Joey Stich, Life long friend Jane Haller.

Kathleen was preceded in death by her beloved son Michael Brazytis and many cherished dogs.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at Immaculate Conception Church in Willoughby on February 5th, at 11:00am. A luncheon will immediately follow at the church after Mass. Kathleen's memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

“ Kathy was a lady who always held love in her heart for family and friends and, of course, her many dogs throughout her life. She placed much energy into a nursing career of 50 years that benefited many individuals. She will be lovingly remembered by those who knew her for her warmth and her wonderful smile that so effortlessly appeared. My cousin Kathy has etched a place in my memory and I will always remember her smiling presence.
