“ Grandma...loving you has always been easy. Though we lived far apart and didn't get to spend as many moments together in this lifetime as others, I've cherished the memories we did share even as a child. They just make me smile and I'll know that in that moment, you are there sharing it with me too. You always made me feel like I fit. I hope that's how you feel up in heaven now too. I'm grateful to have known you and to have my family know you. I moved here just in time to have squeezed in a few more visits before your time with us was over. Had I known your last night was really going to be the last, I would've hugged you longer and made sure you know I love you. I have you etched into my heart and will carry you with me forever. Keep smiling down on us. Let us know you are here when you visit. I miss you already. Love you Grandma!

“ Mom seeing you at Sophia's Birthday made me smile for days. Larry suprising you was the best. I have not seen you that happy in years. I'm going to miss you sooo much. I Love You Mom
