“Kenny and Keith used to be childhood friends of mine. There were those two; myself and my bother Jim. Also Clayton Twigg and Ralph Sarone.

My mom and stepfather owned the cafe and bar on the corner of Wade park and 80th street. All the kids were always in there playing the machines or trying to get a free pop or the peanut machine was a penny.

I still have pictures of them and the rest of the guys in our group if you would care to have a couple.

When everything settles down give me a call at 269-8356 and I can go through my mom's pictures and also the pictures I have to come up with something that you might value.

I still cannot believe they are gone and believe me when I saw the name and face I knew it was the same little guy from the early to mid fifties.

I lived in Michigan for 27 years and moved back recently and on my list is to get in touch with the kids in those pictures, gosh it seems like only yesterday.

God bless you and your family and of course now that Kenny has taken the next step we all must take he is waiting for the rest of his dear family.

Again, God bless you and all my memories are pleasant as we grew up on Wade Park.

“ Kent was a great neighbor and a good friend. In the summertime, he always waived to us from his lawn chair as we passed. Sometimes, he would motion for us to come over so he could strike up a conversation. He was happy and friendly, and he was content in our little corner of the world. We will miss him dearly. We could not have asked for a better neighbor or friend. May he rest in peace.
