“ My friend Lorene was a kind gentle soul She loved her family in Kentucky , her sons George and Michael and her granddaughters Lisa and Michelle one of my favorite memories was when I was 17yrs old I would go to her house every Saturday we would lug the laundry to the laundromat (oh my god there was so much to wash!!) We would laugh and joke all day then we would have to lug it all back to her house, after lunch I would wash her hair roll it up in curlers dry it under that huge hair dryer she had then tease it up into a French twist " then she would be pretty all week " I really miss those days I wish I could have them back I'll never forget you Lorene you will always be in my heart forever
Love Laura
