

Loretta Cooper

January 30, 2012 - January 30, 2012

Loretta LeMaster Cooper

Loretta LeMaster Cooper, age 50, passed away Jan. 24, 2012, at home in Lakeside, Calif., from a year-long battle with brain cancer.

She was born June 24, 1961, in East Cleveland.

She was a 1996 graduate of Lakeland College School of Nursing. She worked as a registered nurse at the Cleveland Clinic in the Cardiac Care Center. Then she traveled and settled in San Diego, Calif.

In 2010, she went to work as a hospice nurse in San Diego into her illness.

Loretta is survived by her husband, Thomas Cooper of Lakeside Calif.; parents, William and Marjorie LeMaster; brother, Michael Christine; uncle, Raymond Neno Brickner; and nephews, Christopher Jacqui, Eric Carly and Jacob Katie LeMaster and Anthony Patty Brickner.

Private services were held in San Diego, Calif.

www.monreal.com

Tribute Wall

BP

“ Bill and Marge.....I was sooo sorry to hear about Loretta. My brother Joe told me awhile ago about her cancer, and I was totally shocked...Loretta will always hold a special place in my heart, and so will you! Please tell everyone I said "hello",and my prayers will always be with you.

Bruce

Bruce Platko - October 12, 2016 at 12:00 AM

SU

“ Bill, Marjorie, Michael and family,

I am sincerely sorry for your great loss. I am Ray and Neno Brickner's niece. I remember Loretta vividly at my mothers funeral,Julie Ujcic, Neno's sister. She was so proud of being a nurse. Sincerely, Sheila Ujcic sheila ujcic - October 12, 2016 at 12:00 AM