“ We have a lifetime of memories of Lori. She was so much fun to be around. She announced she was pregnant with Tiffany at a beach party in Huntington Beach. We were sad when she left her apartment in Anaheim to move to Ohio but excited for her at the same time. I will miss our morning talks and her visits to see us all in Huntington Beach. Rest In Peace cousin Lori. Forever in our hearts.

“ Lori from the time I heard and even now I can't believe you are gone. You were beautiful, loving , happy and full of life. Lori you treated me like family and I love you guys as you were mine. My heart is broken but I know to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. God gave you your wings and now you are safe in his arms. Lori you were the greatest mom and you raised a beautiful young lady. Tiffany is smart, beautiful and loving just like her mom. God will take care of her and you will forever watch over your baby. I will never forget about you but I will miss you! Tiffany and Rocco you have my deepest Condolences. Well until we meet again my beautiful angel

“ We used to rake up the leaves that fell in front of her home on St. Anthony St. and jump in them. I also remember playing in her play house in her backyard. Mostly I remember a very sweet and loving person. 💔

“ Where do I begin. You were my childhood friend we met in 3rd grade and you lived across the street from me for many years. I have so many wonderful memories of you. You were always smiling ,laughing ,and willing to listen to any problem no matter what it was. All the nights spent at your house with your mom cooking for us at all ours of the night, traveling around in your first car going through the teen years. I always came to you with my boyfriend break up stories and you always were there to lend an ear or an opinion. Doing homework outside on your front porch I could go on and on...My heart is broken I wish we could of seen more of each other over the years. You were always a good friend. I see how you had grown into a wonderful mother to your daughter with your warm loving and generous personality and many of your friends share the same sentiment about you. I hope Tiffany this gives comfort knowing how everyone thought of your mom as nothing but a loving giving generous woman who would seem to do anything for anybody without a complaint let this be a testament of the love she had for you and let it guide you through your life because she was such a good example of that for you. May god bless you Rocco at this time her loving brother . Tiffany your mother always wanted the best for you to succeed in life and academics she will be watching over you to be strong and accomplish these things because you seen to be a strong bright woman just like your mom. I hope god gives you all the strength to get through this difficult time in your lives. RIP my friend and I will never ever forget you and will keep you in my hearts thoughts and prayers forever.

“ Lori I will always hold you in my heart. You were one of the sweetest, kindest most generous people I have ever met. I will never forget all the good times we had from sending emails back and forth to each other all day every day while we were both at work to planning bday parties together for our daughters to talks on the phone , meeting each other at the movie theater to sitting in your back yard and having fish tacos and eating Mexican corn! We coached cheerleading together and had so many laughs while doing that! You were an amazing mother Lori . I know how much you loved Tiffany. I'm so glad that I had a friend like you. We still stuck by each other even when things got a little rough (you know what I'm talking about). I will miss you always! And know that if Tiffany ever needs anything all she needs to do is pick up that phone! I love you Lori. I know you will be watching over all of us.

“ I am deeply saddened by this tragedy. Lori was one of the nicest, kindest, & uplifting people I knew. Her bubbly personality and contagious smile lit up every room she walked in. She was genuinely a happy, caring, and loving person. Thank you for your friendship, your infectious laugh, your zeal for life, and your selfless heart. May her family find comfort and peace during this very difficult time. Please know that Lori was loved by all who knew her and she will be sorely missed. 😭 God has Lori in his arms now. Heaven has certainly gained a beautiful angel. Rest In Peace Lori ❤️ Until we meet again....

Tiffany,
Honey we are so sorry.
Truthfully, I don't think I have the words.. but you need to know beyond the shock and pain.. that your mom would only want and hope for you to continue on your path. Be the amazing, beautiful, kind, smart, successful daughter you have always been. Strive to Live the best life for YOU. Trust me when I say you will feel your mothers love for the rest of you life.. because it's a love that NEVER goes away. Tiffany, you are in our hearts and prayers

Ill never forget her yelling at me in the escape room - "I don't know morse code, Steve your ex-military you do it"---I'm also going to miss those chats we would occasional have on Skype.

I will take care of your office for you and forever will keep up on the wall your "Love well, Laugh Often, Love Much."

For me I remember her as laughing a lot and so I share below a link to a phone prank I pulled on her- She ended up hanging up before it fully ended, then called her daughter Tiffany telling her to stop downloading movies (Tiffany was not doing that). Afterwards, once I told her what was going on, she had a big laugh about it...its a laugh that will stick with me forever. I share it because I like to think she would prefer us to laugh than to cry. When you can and are able, have a listen to it and remember to laugh because she did.
