“ Lou was a brother to me, we had know each other for ages. He was a big help on raising my son, and was a giving and caring person. We would talk in some form or fashion on a daily basis just to make sure we were both doing ok. We had many Sunday gathering together where we just sat and enjoyed each others company while watching the ball game. I am not much into sports but it was still time to spend with a good friend. He would always cook and we always had a good time. He was a huge part of my familys life. I wish he could have lived long enough for us all to see him just one last time before he passed away. He will always be in my heart and will remain part of my family.

“ Sundays. Lou would make a big spread for Sunday football. Veggies and dip. Crackers and cheese , all kinds of snacks and make dinner for that night. Then during the game he would be screaming that the Texans couldn't beat a little league team. Of course every now and then I would have to argue with him about it. Lol. But we would just sit and talk and have a great time. Telling stories and laughing. I miss you Lou.. I love you.

“ Lou and I worked together at Coach USA in Houston, Tx, we became friends and that turned into a sister and brother relationship. We have had many conversations throughout the years. Lou was a loving and very caring person that loved life and people. Our relationship will always be cherished deeply within. It hurts that he's gone; but, he's better off. He's no longer dealing with the troubles of this world. I will miss my brother dearly and I know that he's all right. I love you Lou, your sister Lisa.
