“ Andy remembers the first time he met Aunt Louise. When he was a little boy Uncle Al brought Aunt Louise to the house to introduce her to his sister Anna (Andy’s mother). Anna was the eldest of the Zadravec siblings. Andy seems to recall that Al wanted Anna to be the first to know of their engagement.

It isn’t possible to think of Aunt Louse and not see her huge smile and hear her infectious laughter.

We loved watching Aunt Louise dancing, effortlessly, and always in sync with her life partner, Uncle Al.

These are just a few memories to add to your lifelong list.

“May her memory be eternal.”

*Love
