Lu, my sister-in-law was a beautiful woman in so many ways. I'll forever remember many Christmas celebrations with all of her brother Nick and her family that took place at Lu and Swig's home over the years. Lu was a wonderful mother and friend to many. She will be greatly missed by all who loved her so much. My heart especially goes out to her loving children and her sisters. It is heartwarming, however to know that she is now in heaven with her husband, brother and daughter. I feel blessed to have known her and to have been a part of the family.

“ My heart is heavy with sadness. I will miss my sister, Lu, as we had so many fun conversations and visits through the years. They were not often as I lived a distance away, but when we got together it was all fun and laughter. Even our phone calls were so lengthy and remenising of the days gone by. Will miss you loving Sister. Love, Teresa
