“ I am deeply sorry for your loss
You have my deepest sympathy Aunt Margie was a wonderful person and I know she will be missed If there is anything I can do, let me know. God Bless you all in your time of sorrow.

“ Today is a day that we must remember to celebrate the life of an extraordinary women who truly encompassed what a mother, grandmother, and friend should be. We sit here and share all of our warm and loving memories of her with each other, and are able to do so because of her dedication and unconditional love she shared for her entire family. She was full of life, laughter, and love whether she was off traveling the world or at home knitting one of us her cozy afghans. As she moves on to her next journey that God has planned for her, may she have solice in knowing that her life touched so many of us in indescribable ways that have shaped who we are today. I hope to be half the women she was. You will be missed Grandma. Love you!

“ I will miss you so very much. I am so lucky to have had such a loving and caring grandmother. As we now move into the next chapter of our lives we can proudly reflect on the great values that you have instilled in all of us, and in turn pass those same values on to our children. Your love of travel and to experience new things, playing cards with your grandchildren, making the best keylime pie on the planet, and serving us pancakes that were bigger than the dinner plates they were served on are some of the great memories I will hold in my heart forever. May you rest in peace with all the love I have to give. I love you and will miss you always “ Today we grieve the passing of our families matriarch and my loving grandmother. May her memory and life be carried by all she new, loved and touched. All of her remaining children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren owe her a debt of gratitude for the lives we live and share and the joy we now bring to others. We will miss you.
