“ I weighed 4 lbs and 6 oz when I was born; and she nurtured me daily through hospital stay and torment at home until I was a strapping young woman of 5'6' and 125 lbs. She taught me manners, hospitality and civility and how to use a sharp wit well. She saved my life and never judged me; she was always there for me. She loved me and nurtured my children. She stood by us all and never faltered, even when we didn't understand and appreciate her. I love you mom and I miss you more now than ever.
