“ Marie, was like my second Mom growing up. I spent more time over there than anywhere else. Did everything you could think of with the family. Ate, slept, played, camped, hung out, went to Grams house in Richmond Heights. What an incredible woman she was. Always welcoming, or ready to help in anyway. And her sense of humor was the best! I will always have nothing but the best of memories for my second Mom. So thankful she was a part of my life. Thankful for the whole McDonald Family. Love you all.....There's a shindig going on in heaven right now.
